From the Harlem Courant, Feb. 3.

Buda, January 17.

THE 15th a Party of the Malecontents paſs'd over the Danube which was frozen into the Iſland Totſalva, and from thence fetch'd off 52 Oxen belonging to General Pfeffenhoven; Advice of which being brought to that General, he ſent after the Malecontents the Raſcian Horſe out of Peſt; but the Raſcians not being able to overtake them return'd. To day ſome Peaſants came hither from a Village call'd Monor, and proffer'd on the Part of the Malecontents who carried off the Cattle abovemention'd, to exchange them for a certain Quantity of Corn.

Vienna, Jan. 21. On Sunday laſt in the Morning the Emperor, attended by all the Court, went the firſt time ſince his late Indiſpoſition, of which he is perfectly recover'd, to the publick Chappel in the Palace; where Te Deum was ſung with great Pomp and Solemnity for his Recovery. The Count de Tierheim and Count Palfi arriv'd here the 17th of this Month, the firſt from Bavaria, and the other from Croatia of which he is Ban, to make Report to the Emperor of the State of Affairs in thoſe Countries. The two Regiments of Cuiraſſiers that are coming from Bavaria, to reinforce the Army under General Heiſter, arriv'd at Lintz the 18th; ſo that we expect them here very ſuddenly. The laſt Advices from General Heiſter ſay, that the Malecontents he went in ſearch of with a ſtrong Detachment and 4 Pieces of Cannon, did not think it beſt to ſtand him, but retir'd over the Waag as ſoon as they heard of his Approach; Whereupon he return'd with his Detachment to his Army. 'Tis advis'd from Segedin, that Count Caroli, one of the chief Leaders of the Malecontents, ſent his Secretary to Monſieur des Alleurs (who not long ſince arriv'd at Temiſwaer from Conſtantinople,) to tell him that the Imperial Army commanded by General Heiſter, had been intirely defeated in the Battle fought near Tirnau, and that he (Count Caroli) had thought it convenient to come towards the Tibiſcus with a Body of Troops. becauſe they could better ſubſiſt in that part of the Country, and alſo in order to conduct him (the ſaid Monſieur des Alleurs) ſafely under a good Guard to Prince Ragotski. And 'tis reported that by this Artifice his Secretary ſqueez'd a Sum of Money out of the French Envoy, with a Promiſe of a greater Sum. The Count de Lamberg, the Emperor's Ambaſſador to the Pope, is expected here from Rome daily: 'Tis not known yet who will be nominated to ſucceed him.

'The laſt Poſt brought the following Letter from 'Vienna. It appears to have been written by the 'Electoreſs of Bavaria to the Biſhops of the Territory 'of Munich, to preſs the ſecular Clergy to contribute 'with the reſt of the Subjects of Bavaria towards 'the raiſing a Subſidy for paying the Arrears due to 'the Troops which her Electoral Highneſs was 'oblig'd to withdraw out of the fortified Places of 'that Electorate and to disband, by the Treaty ſhe 'concluded with the King of the Romans.

Tereſia Cunegunda, Electoreſs of Bavaria, &c. To the Reverend in Chriſt, Illuſtrious, Noble and Learn'd, dear and faithful, Greeting. This is to let you underſtand, that to reſtore the Tranquility of the Empire, and the Quiet of theſe and the neighbouring Provinces, we have concluded with the King of the Romans a particular Treaty, (however hard and uneaſy to us and this Electoral Houſe,) to be in Force till Peace, (which we hope is not far off,) ſhall be intirely reeſtabliſh'd: Which Treaty will be compleatly executed in a ſhort Time by the Diſmiſſion of the Troops we have yet on foot. And whereas it is well known, that not only a conſiderable Sum of Money is due for their Arrears, without paying which we cannot well disband them, but that for want of the ſame (as we have already experienc'd,) many Dangers, Diſorders and Inconveniences may reſult to the Publick; and againſt which no Remedy is left, but the general Concurrence of our Subjects as well Eccleſiaſtical as Civil, in contributing to a ſufficient Subſidy, to which our faithful and well-beloved States, (Convents and Abbeys included,) have already agreed; and it being highly deſirable and expedient to the ſecular Clergy, (who have felt the heavy weight of War no leſs than others, tho' againſt our Will,) as well as to the reſt of the Inhabitants of theſe Countries, that the publick Peace and Tranquility ſhould be reſtor'd; we have ground to hope that the ſaid Clergy will not pretend to exempt themſelves from bearing their Part of this general Burthen. And therefore, for the better effecting our purpoſe, we would not omit graciouſly to require you, to give Notice of our Intentions (in Virtue of your Office) to all the ſecular Clergy comprehended and inhabiting within the Territory of Munich; eſpecially (all Delay being very prejudicial,) to charge the ſeveral Deans, that they be ready to aſſiſt our Officers in the raiſing of the aforeſaid Subſidy, which with the Advice of the ſaid Deans, ſhall be levied in the eaſieſt and moſt tolerable Manner that may be; for we are in all things diſpos'd to favour you.

Munich, Dec. 6. Tereſia, Electoreſs.

From the Harlem Courant, dated Jan. 27.

Nants, Jan. 13. A Ship that came from Salle the 17th of December is arriv'd here; the Maſter reports, that he left behind him in the Port of Salle, 2 Engliſh Ships bound for London, 1 Dutch Ship for Rotterdam, and 1 for Middleburg: He further reports, that a freſh Quarrel is broken out between the Emperor of Morocco and one of his Sons, and that the Magiſtrates of Salle had offer'd the Government of their Town to the latter; but that he refus'd to accept it: That the Republicks of Tunis and Tripoli are at open War, and that the laſt have made an Alliance with Algiers; but that the Emperor of Morocco has forborn hitherto to declare for either of the Parties at Variance, tho' both have earneſtly ſollicited his Alliance: Laſtly, That the Moors have renew'd the the Siege of Ceuta with great Vigour, yet have ſignified to the new Governour of that Garriſon, that in Caſe he will declare for Charles III. they will break up the Siege.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated Feb. 3.

Genoa, Jan. 10. We have Advice, that the 8th of laſt Month, the Corſairs of Tripoli declar'd War againſt thoſe of Tunis, at the Inſtigation of the Algerines: That a few days after the Tripolines took 3 Ships from the Tuniſians, which were returning from the Coaſt of Italy with a rich Booty: That the Forces of the former taking the Field, attack'd the Army of the Republick of Tunis with great Fury; But were very vigorouſly repuls'd; ſo that the Bey of Tripoli was oblig'd to retire to Tripoli with 2000 Men only, the reſt of his Army abandoning him: And that the Army of Tunis purſued him thither, and have laid Siege to the Place.

Newly publiſh'd, The Second Edition of

A True and Succinct Account of the Venereal Diſeaſe; Shewing its Nature, Cauſes, various ways of Infecting, the eaſineſs of its Cure, and the Reaſons why ſo many daily miſs of Cure; with ſome Directions whereby the Patients themſelves may know when, and when not, they are in ſafe and skillful Hands for Cure. Publiſhed for the Uſe of all whom it may in any wiſe concern, but more eſpecially for thoſe that now have, or at any time may have the Misfortune of that Diſtemper. In order to prevent their being ruin'd by ignorant Pretenders, whoſe fraudulent Practices are plainly diſcover'd, their daily Abuſes detected, their fair Promiſes proved fallacious, and their Methods and Medicines pernicious. The whole interſpers'd with pertinent Obſervations. By John Marten Chirurgeon in Bridgewater Square near Alderſgate-ſtreet, a Golden Head over the Door. To which is added, a few words concerning the Cure of old Gleets, which are generally procur'd by ill Management, and by moſt deem'd incurable. Printed for and ſold by S. Crouch at the corner of Pope's-Head-Alley in Cornhill, J. Knapton at the Crown in St. Paul's Church-yard, and P. Varrenne at Seneca's Head near Somerſet-Houſe in the Strand, Bookſellers. Price 1 s.

☞ The Author of this Book continually curing numbers of Venereal People under moſt deplorable Circumſtances, (even when diſmiſs'd by others as incurable, and that after the fatigue of divers Salivations, as well as all other the common methods) gives this Notice for the ſake of others labouring under the like Misfortunes, that even then (tho' ſeemingly irrecoverable, and paſt all hopes) they may be aſſur'd of a true Cure, by an eaſie method, and be retriev'd in a ſhort time, from the inevitable ruine, which the Diſtemper (either of it ſelf, or enrag'd with bad management) is haſtening them to; tho' it be daily obſerv'd, that ill adminiſtrations, in Venereal caſes, produce much worſe Effects than the Diſtemper, if let alone, would do of it ſelf. Claps of all degrees, even as bad as can be, by abuſe or delay, are ſafely and ſuddenly Cured, Scalding of Urine to the laſt Extremity remov'd within the compaſs of a day, and when attended with a Cordee, &c. in ſeldom more than two; but if come in time thoſe torturing Accidents prevented. Stubborn continued Gleets or Weeping (whether Venereal or by Weakneſs) are cured by a particular method, divers from 3 to 10 and 15 Years and one of 35 Years ſtanding lately cured, after all Attempts by others to no purpoſe.

Theſe are to give notice, That Suſanna Kirleus, the Widow and Relick of the famous Dr. Tho. Kirleus (a Sworn Phyſician in Ordinary to K. Charles II. and a Collegiate Phyſician of London) and Suſanna her only Daughter, are the only Perſons that with a Drink and Pill, hindring no buſineſs, can cure all ſorts of Leproſies and Scorbutick Humours whatſoever (tho' never ſo great) and the moſt inveterate Venereal Diſeaſe with all its Attendances (after 40 Years Experience of the ſaid Mother, and 20 Years of the ſaid Daughters, in the Doctor's Lifetime) as the Doctor ſo ſucceſsfully did without the uſe of Mercury, which raiſeth the Malignity and other Evils from the lower parts, and fixeth the ſame in the Head, and ſo deſtroys many. The Drink and Pill cleanſe the Body and Blood of all Impurities which are the cauſe of Dropſies, Gouts, Scurvies, Stone or Gravel, pains in the Head and other parts. The whole ſecret of this method of Cure never was imparted by the Doctor to any Perſon but his ſaid Wife, nor by her to any but her ſaid Daughter, (tho' many have and do ſtill groſly impoſe upon the Publick by pretending the contrary,) who both live ſtill at the Glaſs Lanthorn in Plow-yard in Grays-Inn-Lane, and never remov'd from thence; And if any Perſon ſend their Grief and Age, can cure them as well afar off as if preſent. The Drink is 3 s. a Quart, the Pills 1 s. a Box with Directions. All Perſons may have Advice Gratis, and the Poor will be dealt very compaſſionately withall.
